It’s you 4/4 145 BPM

I'll need somebody with sources both black and blue
Some kind of peach that causes me to be true
Tiny teaser stiff brain eraser moneymaker belly shaker

Someone in favor of magical mystery tours
Towards the ocean in search for that inner truth
Mental diver a gentle driver upon this force a love revival

So if you walk like that talk like that
Blessed in that brew
My heart will forever be true
Yes if you walk like that talk like that
Soaked in that view
I'll guess you're the one I'll guess it’s you

You might be lonely you might have a lot of friend's
To free the pressure to use what was heaven sent
To preach the message to reach and to be content within this gather upon which we all depend

Some kind of mission beyond what is you and me
Throughout this something that’s burning inside of the Strange emotions strong that devotions keep us calling keep us rolling

So if you walk like that talk like that
Blessed in that brew
My heart will forever be true
Yes if you walk like that talk like that
Soaked in that view
Guess you're the one I'll guess it’s you

I'll guess it’s you
I'll guess it’s you
I'll guess it’s you
