

What If

What if I told you are lonely
What if I told you you`re free
To ride along that highway
To be whatever you want to be
What if gave you some money
Would you be able to see
Obstacles around you
Only meant to sharpen your teeth

Spread your wings out in the air
Reach for you`re future without fear
You know you`re gorgeous when you care
When you`re mind and body share
What if I told you there`s no danger except that fear inside you`re heart

What if I told you all your anger
Is a natural factor when you start
To free you`re self from all that luggage
Build through time of emptiness
All these shadows from the past
All these ribbons out of trust

What if I told you a story
What if I bring you some sights
Would you go for that glory
Struggle every day and night
Until you find what you wanted
Until you get what you need
Would you carry that burden
Carry that burden in re

You float in the air Got Nothing to fear
Now you can see Learning to be free
You float in the air Got Nothing to fear
Now you can see Learning to be free
You float in the air
You float in the air
You float in the air
Learning to be free
