

Fraction

How to eat like the stars
At a fraction of the cost
How to read up on the chart
When you`re down and lost
How to stay inside your skin saturated with sin
How to follow the truth
While searching for the clues

Can`t remember when you told me all of that
Before you left me out in the wilderness
Can`t remember when you hold me like a pet
Revealed all you`re secrets about the net

How to shine like the moon
Without a silver spoon
How to carry on walking
When you`re all alone
How to carry on talking
When the words are choking you
How to sing like a bird
Without being heard
Can`t remember when you told me all of that
Before you left me out in the wilderness
Can`t remember when you hold me like a pet
Revealed all you`re secrets about the net
These dreams within my head still burning my heart
Still searching for kills to flavor my path
That shiver and the thrill still launches my start Running from the shelter with fractions of the past
